TOO SICK TO CARE FOR DEAD BROTHER, MAN SEEMS END

Pitiful Story Told by Mrs. Rose Atkinson, Who Is Now in Serious Condition at Grady Hospital.

"RATHER DIE THAN SEE MY MOTHER IN WANT"

Once They Had Everything They Wanted, She Tells Reporter, and Then Fortune Changed.

At tried to commit suicide because I am not physically able to take care of my 65-year-old mother, and had rather die than see her want for anything," sobbed Mrs. Rose Atkinson, aged 35, as she lay in the clinic of Grady hospital, where she was taken after attempting to commit suicide by taking morphine of mercury at her residence, 15 Savannah street, Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock.

Stronous efforts on the part of physicians at the city hospital were unable to save Mrs. Atkinson's life. After she had regained consciousness she sobbed out her story to a Constitution reporter.

Her husband, J. M. Atkinson, died at the Fulton Bag and Cotton Mills when I am able," she stated, "but for the past several weeks I have had very sick. He went to bed and I haven't had enough in the house to take care of the past several weeks."

"My mother, Mrs. M. E. Skelton, is 65 years old and I love her better than anything in the world. I would rather die than see her want for a thing."

Mrs. Atkinson stated that she had gone to the doctor several days ago, and he had told her that an operation was necessary.

"Selling my mother the money that I would lose by staying away from my work."

Had Her Husband Alive. Mrs. Atkinson stated that she had been married three times and had always had a hard time in life.

There was once, though, when I had everything in the world and I was as good as a queen as anybody in Atlanta is now. That was away from here and I would tell you in what city we lived."

The story of better days was followed by one of privation and sorrow.

Mrs. Atkinson was in a serious condition at a late hour Sunday night, although hope is held out for her recovery by attending physicians.

LEAVES HIS DINNER TO MAKE ATTEMPT TO COMMIT SUICIDE

J. M. Bryan, aged 34, a truck farmer who lives in Ormeau Park, was rushed to Grady hospital at 12:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon after attempting suicide by shooting himself with a 12-caliber revolver. At a late hour Sunday night condition was such that he was taken to the hospital.

The bullet entered the breast about two inches above the heart and lodged in the middle of the chest at the back. The health was assigned as one of the wounded man.

According to the story of the physician, as told by Sterling Bryan, his brother had gotten up from the dinner table and stated that he was going to the back door for a minute.

Following Bryan states that his brother went to his room and then out the back door a few minutes later the single shot was heard from the back of the table.

At the time the shooting occurred Mrs. Bryan, besides Sterling Bryan, at the time the shooting occurred were Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Green and children. Mrs. Green is a sister of the wounded man.

Rio Janeiro, August 29.—President Venancio de Alencar approved the issue of $121,000,000 in paper which was voted by the chamber of deputies on August 24.

This issue is intended particularly for payment of the interest on the foreign debt and paper, prior to 1915, a recent dispatch said.

For Five Months the United States Navy Department Has Been Working to Re-float the Submerged Boat.

DIVING RECORDS BROKEN IN HUNT FOR SUBMARINE

The F-4, With Crew of 21 Men, Went to Bottom During Maneuvers Off Honolulu Harbor on the 25th of March.

Honolulu, August 29.—The United States submarine F-4, submerged March 25 last, was refloated late tonight and towed to the quarantine station in Honolulu bay.

The wreck probably will not be dry docked until Tuesday. Nothing has been discovered by the naval officials regarding conditions, if known, inside the vessel.

Submarine Lost During Maneuvers. The submarine F-4, commanded by Lieutenant Alfred L. Zee, and with a crew of 21 men, went to the bottom of the harbor of Honolulu March 25, 1915, during maneuvers of the "F" squadron. She was located two days later and diver John Agram, of the navy, descended 215 feet, establishing a new world record in an effort to facilitate the work of bringing her to the surface.

Her crew, it was said, might have been alive at this time, but attempts at rescue failed, and on March 30 Rear Admiral C. T. Moore, commanding the Honolulu naval station, reported that the F-4 lay in 270 feet of water and would have to be raised by pontoons.

Secretary Daniels announced that the boat would be raised at any cost to determine the cause of the accident, and diving apparatus and divers were sent out, leaving San Francisco April 6th on the cruiser Maryland. One of the divers, Frank Crilly, went down 215 feet and found one of the compartments of the F-4 filled with water.

Another, William Loughman, descended 220 feet the next day and was seriously injured by "pressure" disease. These men put lines on the F-4 by which the boat was dragged slowly up the shelving bottom, but in the process the boat was wrecked and broken.

Work was halted to await the arrival of pontoons. Six of these came from the navy yard at San Francisco. At the time of the accident, reports gained circulation that the F-4 was not in great danger, but that the water level was too low. These were officially denied.

Seimfin, who was attacked by a negro named Jim Seimfin, was found with a knife blade broken off in his hand, and a razor blade and number of light cuts on his face.

The negro Henry Riddle was stabbed in the chest by a knife and was being serious. It is thought that he will die.

Three other negroes were also slashed seriously, but were patched up by physicians at the hospital and removed to police headquarters.

Outside of having the five aforementioned cases to attend to, police officers at the same time, three other severely injured patients were brought into the hospital and were being treated.

After their injuries were dressed they were taken to their homes.

The proprietor of a store on Decatur street whose name was not available was hit with a ball while watching a baseball game. A small boy took the ball and ran away.

Showing a full at supper time, emergency cases again came in thick and fast to the office of the Grady hospital.

Several places where negroes are being cut by knives and razors.

Arthur Williams suddenly arose from the front step at 107 Bell street, according to the police, and apparently shot the proprietor of the store.

Williams, who was a negro, was taken to the hospital and is being treated.

21 NEGROES KILLED WHILE RESISTING ARREST OF NEGROES KILLED DEPUTY SHERIFF AND ALSO PROBABLY FATALITY WOUNDED SHERIFF

CITY PARK SELECTED FOR CREMATION SCENE

As Soon as Negroes Were Captured They Were Hurried to Sulphur Springs and Burned to Death in Park.

Sulphur Springs, Texas, August 29.—In a fight with an armed posse near here today, Joe Richmond was shot and killed and his brother, King Richmond, both negroes, were seriously wounded; later the body of the dead negro was burned at the stake with his wounded brother in Buford Park in Sulphur Springs.

The negroes early today had shot and killed Deputy Sheriff Nathan A. Flippin and probably fatally wounded Sheriff J. B. Butler.

When the posse arrived here with the negroes a large crowd had gathered and demanded that the burning be staged in the public square. Several influential men counseled that the bodies be not burned, saying there was nothing to be gained, since one negro was already dead and the other probably fatally wounded.

Barred in City Park. Finally, however, the mob removed the dead and wounded negroes to Buford Park. In the outskirts of the city, where they were burned. There was little disorder and as soon as the bodies had been burned the crowd quickly dispersed.

The sheriff and his deputy had started to arrest King Richmond on a minor charge of disturbing the peace south of here. Both negroes without warning opened fire, killing Flippin and wounding Butler.

Within a short time hundreds of armed men were searching for the negroes. They were located in a wood near the city and the sheriff and his deputy were unable to cope with the mob.

Hundreds Trained Negroes. It is estimated 1,500 men and boys trailed the negroes to their hiding place in the woods. The negroes, brought by a fire, fired several shots, and their fighting was of short duration, as the posse fired hundreds of shots into the crowd.

It was learned tonight that Sheriff Butler wounded one of the negroes at the time he and the deputy sought to arrest them at the settlement.

Six thousand people had gathered in the public square when the posse arrived with the sheriff and his deputy. The posse of cooler heads were unavailing and the mob carried out its work in Buford Park with little ceremony.

Sheriff Butler's wounds consist of a broken arm, a shot through the top of his head and three fractures of the skull.

Walsh is Attacked by Colorado Governor. Denver, Colo., August 29.—Governor Carson tonight issued a statement that he had received a letter from the federal commission on industrial relations, had spread "mendacious and untrue statements" regarding the political and industrial condition in Colorado.

"Mr. Walsh, with vicious and cunning, is attempting the domination of the state," he said.

Declaring the people of the state to be "in a state of rebellion," he said that he had decided against striking violence, the governor continued.

Navy Gives Big Show for Governors

The governors of states in conference at Boston saw a review of the United States battle fleet, saw the ships maneuver and repel an attack by a flotilla of torpedo boat destroyers. The governors and their parties left Boston at 12 o'clock for the navy yard, and at 12:45 the Wyoming, carrying the state executives, sailed. The Wyoming was aboard also, and as the ships steamed away the battery fired a salute of nineteen guns. The Wyoming stopped off Boston light. Mainline the destroyers and battleships under way, the twenty-five destroyers passing in double column 800 yards east of the Wyoming. The ten Dreadnoughts steamed by at ten knots, each ship firing its nineteen gun salute to the secretary, and as the Arkansas came abreast the reviewing ship they turned around right, heading east. The Wyoming then proceeded east at fifteen knots, coming abreast of the center of the squadron and then maneuvered the line of battleships gradually eastward and northward. It was while these maneuvers were holding the attention of the secretary and the governors and their friends that the destroyer flotilla suddenly shot into view at full speed in an attack on the east side of the battleship line from ahead. The destroyers, which were in the line of the battleships, fired a salute of nineteen guns. The battleships, which were in the line of the battleships, fired a salute of nineteen guns. The battleships, which were in the line of the battleships, fired a salute of nineteen guns.
